MEDICINAL.

Ask healthy woman what she would sell her health for and she would tell you that the choicest diamonds in the world could not buy it. What use for diamend rings to emphasize the shrunken fingers, or earrings to light up the cheeks hollowed by disease?

Health is the first requisite to womanly happiness. General ill-health in women has its origin in local womanly diseases. Cure the diseases of the delicate womanly organism and the general health is perfectly restored. The remarkable benefits experienced from the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription are due to this medicine's perfect cures of womanly diseases. are due to this medicine's per-fect cures of womanly diseases. It establishes regularity, dries weakening draius, heals inflam-mation and ulceration and cures matior and ulceration and cures female weakness.

"It affords me great pleasure to be able to say a few words in regard to the merits of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and his Golden Medical Diseavery, writes Mrs. Plora Ara, of Daliss, Jackson Co., Mo., "I was tempted to try these medicines afreeing the effect upon my mother. At an early stage of married life I was greatly bothered with painful periods, also a troublesome drain which rendered me very weak and unfit for work of any kind. I became so thin three was nothing left of me but skin and hone. My husband became alarmed and got me a botte of 'Favorite Prescription.' After he saw the wonderful effects of that one he got me two more, and after I used those up there was no more pain, and I began to gain in fiesh very rapidly."

"Favorite Prescription" makes weak women strong, sick women well. Accept no substitute for well. Accept no substitute for he medicine which works won-ders for weak ders for women.

THE PRESIDENT ANSWERS THE APPEAL.

The President yesterday made public his answer to the appeal of Admiral Schley from the findings of the Court of Inquiry, the following being the substance: "I am satisfied that on the whole the court did substantial justice. It should have specifically condemned the failure to enforce an efficient night blockade at Santiago while Admiral Schley was is command. Os the other hand, I feel that there is a reasonable doubt whether he did not move his squadron with sufficient expedition from portion port. If Admiral Scaley was guilty of reprehensible conduct, then Admiral Sampson ought not to have left him as senior officer of the blockading squad-ron the 3 i of July, when he (Samison) sailed away on his proper arrand of communication with General Shafter. The question as to which of the two-men, Admiral Sampson or Admiral Schley, was at the time in command is of merely nominal character, Techniof merely nominal character. Techni-cally, Samps in commanded the fleet, and Schley, as usual, the western division. The actual fact, the impor-ant fact, is that after the bettle was ant fact, is that after the bit is was joined, act a helm was shifted, not a gin was fired, not a pound of steam was put on in the engine room aboard any ship actively sugaged in obsdience to the order of either Sampson or Scaley, save on their own two vessels. It was a captain's fight. So far as the actual fight was concerned, neither one nor the other was in command. Sampson was other was in command. Sampson was hardly more than technically in the fight. I agree with the ucanimous finding of the three admirals who composed the Court of Legury as to the "loop," It seriously marred the Brooklyn's other wise excellent record, being in fact the one grave mistake made by any American ship that day. It seems to me that the recommendations of President Mc-Kinley were emicently proper, and that so far as Admirals Sampson and Schley were concerned it would have been unjust for him to bave made other recommendst ons. In short, as regards Admirals Sampson and Schley, I find that President McKinley did substantial jusice and that there would be no war-rant for reversing his action. There is no excuse whatever from either side for faither sgit tion of this unhappy con-

With this last opinion the people of the United States have three from which to chose and the question, Who was in command at Sait ago? is still unse tled. Below are the three

"UNDER MY COMMAND." - SAMPSON.

"To the Secretary of the N-vy:

"Siboney, July 3, 1898.

"The first under my command offers the nation as a Fourth of July present the destruction of the whole of Cevers's first. No one escaped. They sit imptact. if at. No one escaped. They sit impted to escape at 9:30 this morning. At 2 the last ship, the Cristobal Colon, had run ashore sixiy miles west of Santiago and let down her colors. The Maria Theresa, Oquendo, and Vizcaya were forced ashore, burned and blown up within twenty miles of Santiago. The Furor and Pluton were destroyed within four miles of the port. Lass, one killed and two wounded. Exemy's loss, probably several hundred dead, loss, probably several hundred dead, from guopowder explosion and drowntog. About 1 300 prisoners, including Admiral Cevers. The man killed was George H. Elis, chief yeoman of the Brooklyn." FAMPSON, SCHLEY "IN ABSOLUTE COMMAND .- "

DEWEY. "Commodore Schley was the senior officer of our squadron off Sattago when the Spanish squadron attempted sescape on the morning of July 3, 1898. He was in absolute command, and is entitled to the credit due to such commanding officer for the glorious victory which resulted in the total de-struction of the Spanish ships."

GEORGE DEWEY, Admiral, United States Navy. Washington, Dec. 13, 1901.

"A CAPTAINS' FIGHT."-ROOSEVELT. "Technically, Sampson commanded the first, and Schley, as usual, the Western division. The actual fact—the important fact—is that after the battle was joined not a helm was shifted, not a gun was fired, not a pound of at sam was put on in the engine-room aboard any ship actually engaged, in obedience to the order of either Sampson or Schley, save on their own two vessels. It was a captains' fight "THEODORE ROOSEVELT.

URGES NEGROES TO EUY HOMES. The eleventh annual esssion of the Tuskegee Als., negro conference assembled t Tuskegee, Normal and Industrial loctruce yet rday. Booker I. Wesbington will preside at all the meetings. At the opening session Washington said: "It is with a race as with an individual; the place to begin to make improvements is right where it is. If we cannot improve our condition to the South, I do not believe condition is the South, I do not believe that there are many spots on earth where we can do so. There is an opportunity open in the South for every black man to purchase a farm and make an independent living on that farm. Agriculture will give the race the foundation upon which to build and prepare their for more important things. Throughout the South the youth of Throughout the South the youth of our race should be constantly reminded that we have the occupations that tend to advancement—the mechanical and dome to employments—practically in our hands. There is nothing in politics or in any other avenue of life tost can begin to compare in importance just now to the negro's securing a home and becoming a taxpayer and educat ng cupations that are about his doors. the pegro can have in any part of the country is for him to become the most successful man in his community."
